Distribution service disclaimers:

HWP Email Distribution Service Code of Conduct

When using the HWP distribution list organisations or individuals (users) agree:

- The service exists to disseminate information which helps to promote a better place to live, work and study in Hesters Way, Springbank, Fiddlers Green, St Marks and Rowanfield.
- The mailing lists are for non-commercial use only. Any material containing advertising or solicitation for goods or services will not be distributed without receiving prior approval from HWP.
- Users shall remain solely responsible for the content of, all replies, responses, and complaints to their messages.
- When advertising positions of employment, and in any other communications relating to categories of persons please refer to our diversity policy.
- That, where relevant, users own the copyright with respect to material provided, or they have received permission from the copyright owner, or the material is in the public domain. Users further agree that they otherwise have the full and unencumbered right to disseminate such material and that such dissemination will not infringe any rights or interests of others.
- HWP reserves the right – in its sole discretion and without notice to the user - to decline sending messages that are unsolicited, commercial, non-constructive, off-topic, abusive, obscene, in violation of copyright laws, unlawful, fraudulent, threatening, unacceptable or are in violation of this Code of Conduct or any of the policies of HWP. This list is non-exhaustive and may be subject to change.
- HWP does not endorse the opinions and information sent via this service on behalf of others, nor do they accept any responsibility for those opinions or for anything that may happen in relation to them.
